KEY OBJECTIVE

The key objective is to increase youth participation and collaboration in decision making processes with regards to democratic governance by empowering young people from across the world to invent and propose new, innovative and concrete actions aiming at reinventing democracy by taking advantage of what the digital era has to offer.

OUR ECOSYSTEM

Young people can join as:

- Core Participants
- Shadow Participants
- Planetary Participants

Personalities or Organizations may join as:

- Mentors (i.e., support participants)
- Liaisons/Brokers (e.g., organize local events or SDDPs)
- Supporters (e.g., contribute in some way)
- Endorsers (e.g., project under their auspices)
- Researchers (e.g., conduct research with us)
- Policy technocrats (e.g., design/promote new policies)
- Politicians (e.g., contribute to change)

APPROACH

We use the Structured Democratic Dialogue Process (SDDP) to:

- Identify reasons why youth abstain from basic democratic processes
- Design solutions to address key root causes identified
- Empower them to take action and promote their ideas and solutions
- Explore innovative solutions utilizing the broad range of ICT tools

TOOLS

- Cogniscope v3 facilitates face-to-face SDDPs
- IdeaPrism facilitates virtual SDDPs and allows anyone to launch a dialogue
- Asynchronous Wisdom Summator facilitates small-to-large group integration
